ESIS Appoints Eric Burtis Senior Vice President of Field Claims

WHITEHOUSE STATION, NJ, June 18, 2020—Eric Burtis has been appointed Senior Vice President of Field Claims for ESIS, a Chubb Company, and a leading third-party claims administrator (TPA).

In this role, Mr. Burtis will oversee the management of ESIS field claim offices nationwide. He will be responsible for strategic thought leadership, execution excellence, driving innovation and data driven initiatives to support client needs, as well as talent acquisition and development. He will be based in Overland Park, KS, and will report to Ms. Sherman.

“Claims excellence and exceptional service are key differentiators for ESIS,” said Leigh Anne Sherman, President, ESIS. “Eric’s deep claims expertise, commitment to developing high-performing teams, and strong engagement with our clients will continue to drive our ability to deliver tailored claims and risk management solutions that reduce our clients’ total cost of risk.”

Mr. Burtis has more than 20 years of claims management experience. Most recently he led claims operations in ESIS’ Overland Park, KS, Sunrise, FL, and Wilmington, DE, offices. He serves on the executive committee of the ESIS Women of Impact mentoring and professional development program.

Prior to joining ESIS, Mr. Burtis worked for a national insurance carrier in a variety of roles with increasing responsibility. His tenure included field liability, auto property damage, regulatory affairs, and national strategy.

Mr. Burtis holds a bachelor’s degree in communications from the University of Kansas.
